

“I am extremely busy, so I learned the art of delegation.”

“This is a creative outlet for me.”

“I got to reflect on my leadership; I realized flaws and tendencies I wouldn't have noticed until I was teaching.”

“I have developed patience.”

“You get to shepherd in a new generation of students. This is intensely rewarding.”

“By the end of this PE course, you will be a different person with a refined set of values and intuition.”

“Knowing that I made an impact on my students is the most humbling experience I've had since I've come to college.”

WHY BE AN HONORS PEER EDUCATOR?

“In many ways, I feel as though I am learning more than my students are on a weekly basis.”

“The best benefit from being a PE is learning from my students. They have so many important things to say. Some of our in-class conversations have been the highlight of that week.”

“I can't wait to see how the rest of the semester unfolds because so far, it's been absolutely magnificent.”

“If you want to make a difference in Honors, do this. It is definitely a worthwhile experience.”

“This has been one of the most rewarding and challenging learning experiences of my time in college—learning how to take charge, be creative, and step up in a leadership position with the confidence and authority I didn't know I had.”

“Being a PE has allowed me to become more compassionate.”

“Speaking in front of an audience for extended periods of time is now a 'no big deal' task.”
